News Digest.

The Republicans of Old Rock county opened the campaign yesterday by a grand ratification meeting at Janesville. The jollification commenced at two o'clock in the afternoon and was prolonged till a late hour last night. Every town in the county was represented. Rock county is good for at least 3,000 majority for LINCOLN and HAMLIN in November next.

A terrific hurricane swept over Southern Ohio Monday afternoon, doing immense damage. The estimated loss in Cincinnati alone is $500,000.

A number of interesting items of news will be found in our telegraphic columns.

The Nebraska Contested Case.

On Friday last, the House of Representatives disposed of the contested case in Kansas. EXPERIENCE ESTABROOK, formerly Attorney General of this State, and the Democratic candidate, last Fall, for delegate from Nebraska, who obtained the certificate of election and has held the seat since the session commenced, was unceremoniously turned out, without even a call of the yeas and nays, and Mr. DAILY, his Republican competitor, duly installed. The case appears to have been a perfectly clear one. NEBRASKA as like KANSAS, is preparing to come into the Union as a Republican State.

HOW OLD ABE RECEIVED THE NEWS.—When the news of the nomination was received in Springfield, Mr. LINCOLN was in the State Journal office. A boy came headlong into the room where he was sitting, with a sealed dispatch, which he placed in his hand. Mr. LINCOLN opened it and a sudden pallor came over his features. He gazed upon it intently nearly three minutes. Then his customary smile returned, and he rose, saying: "Well, boys, there is a little woman down at our house who is interested in this business;" and walked away without any further appearance of agitation, to inform Mrs. LINCOLN of the joyful news.

A TERRIBLE CASE OF PIRACY, IF TRUE.—In the form of correspondence, the New York Herald gives the following piece of news:—"A Spanish brig was fitted out at a Cuban port (not Havana) some two months since for the coast. She was well fitted and stored, and the supercargo had $30,000 on board to meet expenses of the voyage and cargo. The crew of this vessel, when near St. Thomas, rose upon the officers and murdered them all. They robbed the vessel, and after dividing the spoils, sunk her. They managed from St. Thomas and other islands near to get vessels, some for England, others for the United States, Havana, &c. Five of them have been discovered in Havana, and are now in the Tacon prison, and some twenty more are to be found in other countries."

MEDICO-POLITICAL.—Suppuration generally follows corruption, and dissolution completes the work. The Doctors all agree that the Democratic party is corrupt, and now that it is evident no two Democratic delegates, editors or statesmen can agree, when in fact a man is tempted to fall out with himself if he is a Democrat, will they feel the popular pulse, and tell us how long the creature will live?

THE STATE DEBT of Virginia now amounts to $41,000,000. To meet the interest and provide for the principal under the present system of taxation, is impossible, and the large slaveholders insist that if Slaves are taxed according to their market value, they will be compelled to remove their "chattels" out of the State. They claim that they ought to be taxed as persons, which, of course, would involve a levy altogether nominal, comparatively speaking. This talk of Slaves being persons is certainly an anomaly.

THE DISSENSIONS of the Massachusetts Democracy are incurable. A Democratic meeting at Lowell, Tuesday night of last week, which was expected to censure Gen. BUTLER for his vote at Charleston, ended in a complete endorsement of the course of that gentleman, who was tendered a vote of thanks for his course. Gen. BUTLER made a characteristic speech, and completely overawed the DOUGLAS wing—even denying them the privilege of hissing.

DOUBLY SAD EVENT.—We learn from the Georgia papers that the Hon. CHARLES J. McDONALD, one of the most eminent jurists of that State, and for several years Justice of the Supreme Court, was suddenly attacked with disease on Wednesday night of week before last, and now lies at the point of death. Mrs. McDONALD heard him breathing very heavily the night he was attacked, and attempted to rouse him without success, was so shocked by his condition that she died a short time after.

SEVENTEEN-YEAR LOCUSTS.—Mr. G. H. WELD, of Elizabeth, N. J., writes:—"This wonderful insect is now piercing the ground by thousands in my garden at Elizabeth, N. J. They will come out about the 25th of May. They open a breathing hole near half an inch in diameter, and 4 1-2 to 6 inches deep. Below the holes the earth appears solid, as if they had never been deeper."

A GEORGIA GIANT.—There is a man at Atlanta, Georgia, who offers to fight the Benecia Boy for $10,000, the match to come off some time this summer, South of Mason and Dixon's Line. He is six feet one inch high, weighs 210 pounds, and is said to be a Hercules in strength, and an Apollo in symmetry. If HEENAN will not fight him, he offers to fight with any man in the world.

A LITERARY JOKE.—The question as to who accomplishes the most literary labor, has at last been satisfactorily settled by WM. YOUNG, editor of the Albion, who declares that if WARREN wrote "Now and Then," and BULWER LYTTON "Night and Morning," it remained for DICKENS to write "All the Year Round."

IT IS ANNOUNCED that M. M. POMEROY has bought out SWINEFORD's interest in the La Crosse Democrat, and that paper will be re-issued this week. We hope "Brick" will get along better with the whole than he did with half of it.

THE PLATFORM AND THE MAN.

Opinions of the Press, &c.

WISCONSIN.

From the Madison State Journal.

It is a characteristic of the man that he has always been found ready and equal for the exigencies of fortune. He has never sought office or position, but, when they have sought him, they have found him prepared to assume and discharge their duties with honor to himself and with advantage to his country.

Abraham Lincoln is a statesman:

There's in him stuff that puts him to these ends;
For being not propped by ancestry, (whose grace
Chalks successors their way,) neither allied
To eminent assistants, but, spider-like,
Out of his self-drawing web he gives us note,
The force of his own merit makes his way,
A gift that heaven gives for him.

From the Madison Argus & Democrat (Democrat.)

But Lincoln is a strong candidate. There is no use talking. He is the homeliest man in America, and would "take the jack-knife" if the last owner will only deliver it. This will give him popularity. He split rails in early times, and that will be hawked from one end of the land to the other, it will give him some such prestige as hard cider gave Harrison.

NEW YORK.

From the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

Mr. Lincoln has not that long experience in public service which we could have wished, but he has something better in the strong, sagacious mind, cool and unshaking nerve, and intelligent familiarity with public measures which lie at the bottom of all true statesmanship. His colleague on the ticket, Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, of Maine, is a statesman of cultivation and experience. No one can doubt his ability and adaptation to the place, or would fear to see the reins of the executive placed in his hands in event of the death of the President.

From the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer.

The Republican National Convention at Chicago has performed its work, has laid down a broad, conservative, national, patriotic, and union platform, and nominated the Hon. Abraham Lincoln, of Illinois, and Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, of Maine, to stand thereon, the former to ask the suffrages of the citizens of this great Confederacy, for the office of President of the United States, the latter for the office of Vice-President. We need not tell our readers that William H. Seward was our first choice, and that our labor has been that he should be the nominee of the Chicago Convention, for the Presidency. The Convention, however, has decided otherwise, and we bow to the decision, bow with greatest cheerfulness, inasmuch as, although Mr. Seward, whom we consider the first great representative of Republican principles, has been defeated, we have in the nomination of Mr. Lincoln no expediency candidate, but one who early embraced the Republican cause, has always labored constantly for its success, has, from the beginning, stood, and stands now fair and square on its national and conservative platform.

* * * * *

Congratulating the Republican Party on the good feeling that characterized the Convention at Chicago, we have only further to say, here are two eminent statesmen, whose honesty of purpose, purity of character, and fidelity to National Republican principles, are unquestioned, claiming the support of the people of the United States, in opposition to a sectional and corrupt Democracy. Let that support be given heartily—go at once to work for them, and they and their principles shall triumph. Our own best exertion shall be given for their success, and given in confidence and hope.

The life and record of Mr. Lincoln are singularly simple and pure. He comes of a stalwart race of pioneers from Virginia into the wilds of Kentucky, poor, but honest and fearless.

Here stand we, here stand Lincoln and Hamlin, and we therefore inscribe Lincoln and Hamlin on our banner, prepare to go manfully to work to ensure their election, asking all good Republicans, all patriotic, national, and conservative citizens of this Confederacy to do the same.

From the New York Commercial Advertiser.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.—The Chicago Convention yesterday contributed largely towards fulfilling the hopes we expressed as to the wisdom and conservatism which would mark their proceedings by the adoption, by acclamation, of a platform which will be found in the telegraphic report of their proceedings. We need only ask even the hitherto most bitter opponents of the Republican party to read the series of resolutions with candor to ensure their admission that in temper and language it is commendable in the highest degree. Of course there will be differences of opinion upon its political theories, but that it is dignified in tone and national and conservative in sentiment none can deny. For ourselves we rejoice exceedingly that the platform is conceived in the spirit we advocated the other day, and that it contains no opprobrious and offensive epithets such as those we then commented upon. A great party should never condescend to bandy epithets with its opponents in the official expositions of its creed. If epithets must be resorted to, let them be confined to local and personal discussions.

From the Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat.

THE REPUBLICAN BANNER THROWN TO THE BREEZE!—The labors of the Republican Convention terminated, so far as a candidate for President is concerned, in the nomination of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois. This was accomplished on the third ballot. We need not say that the first announcement of this intelligence here, and probably all over the States, caused a depression of feeling seldom produced by political events.—The great mass of our Republican friends had set their hearts upon the nomination of William H. Seward. They believed him more worthy than any other man. They knew him eminently fit for the Presidency, and that for more than twenty years he had unflinchingly advocated the principles so dear to every Republican. But dear as he was and is to them, they cheerfully trusted to the wisdom of the delegates of the entire party to decide upon the most expedient nomination. The decision has been made after long and anxious deliberation, and we have no doubt but that in the minds of those who voted for Mr. Lincoln there were controlling reasons for preferring him even to the peerless Statesman of New York. We respect their judgment, and bow to it without a murmur. We believe it will evoke an enthusiasm in the West unequalled in our political annals since 1840. Despite the disappointment here, there an instant response to the nomination. A large flag, bearing upon it the name of our chosen leader, was suspended from the Democrat and American Building to the Arcade; a band of music paraded the streets, and a salute of one hundred guns fired. The nomination will be supported with enthusiasm, and the more ABRAHAM LINCOLN becomes known to the American people, the more overwhelming will be the enthusiasm which we believe will certainly swell until the ballot boxes declare him the next President of the United States.

Mr. Lincoln is a Kentuckian by birth, and has worked his way up from a poor boy to an eminent position among the Statesmen of the age. In solid ability he is more than a match for his probable rival, Douglas, and in many a well-fought forensic combat, has, in the judgment of all impartial hearers, utterly routed him. Huzza, then, and three times three for LINCOLN and VICTORY.

From the Buffalo (N. Y.) Express.

THE FEELING AMONG REPUBLICANS.—We find the feeling which prevails among Republicans with regard to the nominations made at Chicago last Friday, to be precisely what we anticipated in our first remarks.—They are heartily approved as excellent and admirable ones, and whatever disappointment was at first experienced by the sanguine friends of Mr. Seward, is fast surrendering to the influence of the gathering enthusiasm in favor of honest Abraham Lincoln, the sterling nominee. The spirit so wildly and frantically manifested in Chicago when the choice was made, is one that will soon spread everywhere and set the whole country ablaze.

The nomination of Abraham Lincoln—Honest old Abe—by the great Republican party, is a guaranty that the country, wearied and outraged by the malfeasance of those invested with the Federal power, desires a return to the sterling honesty and Democratic simplicity which marked the Administrations of Jefferson, Madison, Adams and Jackson.

MISSOURI.

From the Missouri Democrat.

The name of Abraham Lincoln will thrill the Union, and if he lives till then, will be as certainly elected next November as the sun rises and sets upon the day of the election. In Illinois, where he has already fought the combined hosts of the Douglas and Administration Democracy, and achieved a popular victory over each, his nomination will create the greatest enthusiasm ever known in the West. His selection by the Convention is a defiance to Douglas, and although beaten for the Senatorship from Illinois by a corrupt apportionment of the State, the Northern States will take good care to see that he is placed beyond peradventure in the Presidential chair, within the year. In Pennsylvania the conservative element will rally to his support, and a clean record upon all the important questions of the day, will win him the most enthusiastic, unwavering support from every lover of his country and opponent of the present profligate Administration.—New England will be in 1860 as in 1856, a unit for the nominee; New York, though decidedly attached to Mr. Seward, will roll up a majority of thousands; Ohio, Indiana and Illinois will vie with each other in doing honor to the nominee, while the four States in the Northwest—Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan, will follow New York, and youthful Kansas, if admitted, will send up her voice also for "Old Abe;" New Jersey on the Atlantic will increase the Republican majority, and distant Oregon, "where the ceaseless billows roll," will redeem herself from the clutches of the Slave Democracy which she came so near throwing off (lacking only 16 votes) last year; and so the entire North in harmony will unite in honoring the choice of the Chicago Convention.

OHIO.

From the Ohio State Journal.

We take great pleasure in placing at the head of our columns the nominee of the National Republican Convention, Hon. Abraham Lincoln of Illinois, as our candidate for President. The most magnificent, enthusiastic and harmonious National Convention that ever assembled in the United States, after full and earnest consultation, have presented to the people a standard bearer worthy of their noble cause. Honest, able, and patriotic, a man of the people—the representative in his own person of the superiority of free labor and free institutions. He is destined beyond all doubt to be the next President of the United States. We write surrounded by enthusiastic friends. The booming of cannon, and the general rejoicing are but harbingers of the wild-fire that will rapidly overspread the entire country. We refer our readers to our dispatches for details. Huzza for Lincoln, the next President, the patriot statesman of Illinois!

P. S.—Since the above, the telegraph has announced the nomination of Hannibal Hamlin, of Maine, as the Republican candidate for Vice President. This is a most judicious and excellent selection. The location is right, the man is one of the purest and best men in the Senate of the United States. The ticket is now complete. The Convention has closed its labors in a blaze of glory. The Platform is admirable. The nominations are most acceptable. Every act connected with this vast gathering of the people has been most auspicious. The last lingering doubt has been expelled. The shattered and divided Democracy are in despair, and concede that all is lost. Ohio sends greeting to her sister States, and pledges thirty thousand majority for Lincoln and Hamlin!

PENNSYLVANIA.

From the Reading (Penn.) Journal.

"A Henry Clay Whig, and the devoted personal friend of that great Statesman, he is the advocate of protection to American industry, which circumstance should make him acceptable to the Opposition in Pennsylvania—who, (if the standard-bearer is not to be selected from our own State) will search in vain for one who will better represent their interests, or in whose person are combined more of the requisites necessary for the faithful discharge of the duties connected with the executive chair of this great country."

NEW ENGLAND.

BOSTON, Friday, May 18.

Mr. Lincoln's nomination for President caused some surprise, but was well received generally by the Republicans, who hailed the announcement with a salute of 100 guns. It is proposed to hold a grand ratification meeting at Faneuil Hall on Monday night.

MANCHESTER, Friday, May 18.

A salute was fired for the Chicago nominees. Much excitement prevails, and the Republicans are apparently perfectly satisfied.

BATH, Me., Friday, May 18.

A salute of 100 guns, fireworks, ringing of bells, and a street procession with music, inaugurated the Republican campaign in this city.

CONCORD, N. H., Friday, May 18.

The Republicans of this city received Mr. Lincoln's nomination with great enthusiasm. A salute of 100 guns was fired, and bonfires lighted this evening, &c.

PORTLAND, Friday, May 18.

The Chicago nominations were received with great enthusiasm. A salute of 100 guns, bonfires, &c.

BANGOR, Friday, May 18.

One hundred guns were fired, and the Republicans are jubilant for the Chicago nominations.

NEW HAVEN, Friday, May 18.

The nominations of Lincoln and Hamlin are received with universal enthusiasm. A national salute is now being fired upon the Green.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 18.

Mr. Hamlin's rooms are crowded to-night with friends congratulating him on his nomination. He had no expectation of receiving it and was surprised when it was announced to him. The Republicans of this city and the Republican Congressmen, are full of enthusiasm over the ticket. Mr. Douglas has repeatedly said to-day that the nomination of Mr. Lincoln was the strongest the Republicans could have made. A Republican ratification will be held here next week.

WASHINGTON, Friday May 18, 180.

The nomination of Mr. Lincoln has been received with remarkably unanimous and hearty expressions of satisfaction by the Republican members of Congress.

The Democratic members are equally unanimous in asserting that Mr. Seward should have been taken. The conviction is everywhere expressed that Mr. Lincoln will make a clean sweep in the North-West, carrying every State in that section.

The opinion that no man has been named among all the candidates who possesses greater running qualities than Mr. Lincoln, finds prompt assent in all quarters. There was a strong desire and expectation that a candidate for the Vice-Presidency would be taken from Pennsylvania, it being believed that such a course would strengthen the ticket in that State; but confidence is felt that the Convention had acted wisely, it having the means of deciding upon the propriety of that course. Mr. Hamlin is considered a wholly unexceptionable candidate, and one possessing unquestionable elements of popularity, with no drawbacks.

All things considered, the action of the Convention is regarded as eminently satisfactory. The enthusiasm of the North-Western men knows no bounds.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Friday May 18.

An enthusiastic ratification meeting was held at the Republican head-quarters last night. A grand torchlight procession is now marching the streets. The nomination of Lincoln is received with general favor by the party throughout the State, it being the work of the Pennsylvania Delegates.

The leader in the North American speaks very highly of the candidates, alluding particularly to the devotion of Lincoln through a long public life to Whig principles as a strong proof of his soundness on the question of the protective tariff, of which he has been for years a constant advocate.

NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, Friday May 18.

A large, spontaneous and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans was held here this evening, ratifying and congratulating on the Chicago nominations. Speeches were made by C. Parker, Esq., D. A. Hoyes, Esq., J. Y. Foster, Esq., and others. One hundred guns were fired and bonfires lighted. A great deal of good feeling was manifested and many congratulations exchanged.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, May 18.

The Louisville Democrat, in speaking of the action of the Chicago Convention, says: "The nomination of Lincoln is the strongest the Republicans could make."

CRITICAL CONDITION OF REV. THEODORE PARKER.—Letters from Florence, received in this city, confirm the statements in regard to the dangerous illness of Rev. Theodore Parker. For several weeks previous to the date of the letter (the latter part of April,) he had been failing sensibly, while a serious depression of spirits reacted upon his bodily condition. Feeling that something must be speedily done, a consultation of Dr. Appleton, Mr. Apthorp of Boston, and others of his friends, was called, and it was decided to obtain a vetturino with a view of transporting him by easy journeys to Florence, in the hope that new sights and scenes might improve his mental condition. For two days the journey was prosecuted, but then the patient became so weak that the vetturino was abandoned. After a period of rest he was taken to Florence by rail, and at last accounts was surrounded by his friends, growing daily weaker and weaker, and with but faint hopes of another rally. The tenor of the letter, which was written by one often at his bedside, bids his friends here to prepare for early intelligence of an afflictive character.—Boston Traveller, May 19.

Disgraceful Scene at the Theatre—Mr. Webb "Casts the Octoroon."

On Monday, F. D. MADDEN, a respectable citizen of this city, who may be called a colored man—but who is not literally—bought tickets for himself and two female companions in the dress circle. These seats were selected and reserved for him. On Monday night during the play Mr. WEBB was informed that there was an individual in the house whose several component parts were as white as common usage demands, but who, popular theory said, had negro blood in his veins. Mr. WEBB immediately wrote the following note and sent it to Mr. MADDEN:

"You had better come and see me, or you will have trouble. WEBB."

Mr. MADDEN took no notice of the note, and Mr. WEBB ordered the policeman present to eject him, which delicate feat the policeman declined. Mr. WEBB then prepared to go in on his muscle, and approached the unfortunate purchaser of the seats. Unfortunately for the popular theory, he made a mistake in his man at first and tapped a well known gentleman of this city on the shoulder requesting him to "come out." This the gentleman declined to do, and some one informing Mr. WEBB that he had made a mistake, and that the next man was Mr. MADDEN, he caught that individual in a very summary manner and by sheer force pulled him from the seat and thrust him from the theatre.

Mr. MADDEN obtained a warrant yesterday morning and Mr. WEBB went to Chicago.

New Books.

"Men who have Risen,"—A Book for Boys—Illustrated by J. C. DOYLE. New York: TOWNSEND & Co. Milwaukee: STRICKLAND & Co.

We some time ago noticed a little work entitled "Women of Worth." The present volume is a companion to that. It contains comprehensive biographies of the ROTHSCHILDS, GEORGE STEPHENSON, OBERLIN, HUGH MILLER, and others, and is one of those books we always take pleasure in recommending. It is handsomely bound in red and gold, making a very acceptable present for boys.

WHERE TO GET YOUR GOLD PENS.—JOHN B. GOUGH used to tell about a "pen of iron dipped in the molten lava of hell." We think the allusion far-fetched, but can't help thinking of it very often when we are writing with the new-fangled pens. What is more abominable than a perverse pen? When your ideas flow, the ink will not, and when your ideas discontinue, your repeated scratching is rewarded by an immense blot. Then there is the pen that makes an invisible line to-day and the diamond drops off to-morrow.—Rascally pens. To all who ever have trouble with these things which are mightier than the sword, we would say procure those made by DEX ST. JOBBE, 125 East Water street.—We are penning this article with one, and if there is anything excessively brilliant or original in it let it be attributed to the pen.

We will warrant his manufacture.

LAKE SHORE RAILROAD.—We publish the advertisement and time-table of the Lake Shore Railroad for the benefit of those who may be travelling by way of Chicago. To go from this region to Chicago, it is nearer by Milwaukee than by the Junction, and Chicago and Northwestern Road; and the road from Milwaukee to Chicago can hardly be beat for safety, pleasantness, and good management generally. We think it will be convenient for those in this region who may be going that way to see in our paper the connections at Milwaukee.—Kilbourn City Mirror.

What the Mirror says about the Railroad between this City and Chicago is emphatically true. It is in capital order and admirably managed. During Convention week at Chicago three trains were run daily, each way, over the road, and though some of them consisted of twelve or thirteen cars, packed full; they were always on time.

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE."—In the hurry of business since our return from the National Convention, we have inadvertantly omitted to acknowledge the kind attentions of friends WRIGHT, J. L. MARSH, Esq., Col. DWIGHT BOOTH, and numerous others, during our sojourn in Chicago last week.

Especially are two "nice young men," we might mention, (modesty forbids,) indebted to Capt. C. C. MARSH, of the highly popular Hotel de Marsh, and L. TIFFANY Esq., proprietor of the extensive livery establishment in rear of the "Tremont," for generous hospitality and unremitting attentions during their stay. May the big hearts of friends "CAL" and "AL" ever continue to beat in the right place, and their "shadows never grow less." J.

A "WIDE-AWAKE" CLUB FOR MILWAUKEE.—The Republican Young Men of this city should lose no time in organizing a "Wide-Awake" Club, to serve during the coming Presidential Campaign. These clubs, in other States, have largely contributed to Republican victories. Let us, by all means, have one here.

THE Free Church of the Atonement, on the corner of Jefferson and Michigan sts., is to be enlarged to accommodate the congregation. Workmen have already commenced their labors. Under the ministration of Rev. Mr. PAUL, this Society seems to have flourished abundantly.

RE-OPENING THE SECOND WARD HIGH SCHOOL.—All students who desire to enter the Second Ward High School for the summer term, are requested to be present at the High School Room, Wednesday morning, May 23d, at 9 o'clock.

CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT was occasioned yesterday morning about the corners of Oneida and Milwaukee streets, by the caving in of a well upon a German laborer. He was ultimately rescued, without sustaining serious injuries.

BASE BALL.—The Milwaukee Base Ball Club meet for practice at 3 o'clock this afternoon, on Spring street hill. Members are requested to be punctual in their attendance.

Soup House Report.

On Saturday, May 12th, ninety-four families applied at the Soup House for help, making altogether 522 persons. Among these were distributed 100 pounds of meat, 300 pounds corn meal, 200 loaves of bread, 10 bushels of potatoes, and 2 bushels of beans.

The managers have for several weeks adopted the plan of discontinuing the soup during the week; and opening the house on Saturday only for the distribution of flour, corn meal, meat, &c. Last Saturday, as there was not money enough remaining to procure the usual supply, they were compelled to close the house for the season, although from personal observation and acquaintance with the poor, they feel convinced that their necessities and suffering, though somewhat lessened by the warm weather and the occasional demand for labor, are yet very great; and it is with much reluctance that they leave these widows, helpless children and disabled men to provide for themselves. The public can easily trace the cause of this unusual destitution to the "hard times," the decreasing demand for labor of any kind, and reduced wages. If the rich feel the "pressure" how much more the poor? Do not refuse them when they ask your charity, do not bid them go to work unless you have work to give them, and will pay them for it; do not tell them to go to the city, but give them of your abundance, and your stores shall be increased.

The managers offer the following account of money received and expended since the Report made March 24. The balance remaining will be used for the sick, and for some of the poorest families under the immediate care of the ladies:

Milwaukee, May 21st, 1860. By Order.

MUNICIPAL COURT, MAY 22.—Paddy Flynn, drunk. Penalty and costs $11,50 or 20 days in jail. Paddy claimed that a mistake was made by the Clerk, by which he was imprisoned 30 days instead of 20 on a former occasion, and asked the Court to give him credit for the 10 days on this sentence. The Court would not listen to Paddy's request, and he was sent up to the Cross Bar Hotel.

Louisa Hall, disorderly. Penalty and costs $6,50. Paid.

John Granich, assault and battery. Settled.

Wm. Schnitzler, obtaining money under false pretences. Complainant, H. Millman, acknowledged satisfaction in the Supreme Court. District Attorney directed a discontinuance on payment of costs. Costs paid.

MISS WEBB'S BENEFIT.—An unusually large audience attended the Academy on Monday night, the occasion of Miss ADA WEBB's benefit. The play of the "Bride of Lammermoor" was creditably performed.—Miss ADA WEBB's attempt to sing the Marseillaise, however, was anything but a success. Her voice—what there is of it—is sweet, but totally inadequate to the performance of such a piece as this.

Messrs. WILSON and FOSTER are sterling good actors, and performed their parts well, as they always do.

TOMMY FITCH, whilome "Squibob," yesterday asserted that he intended to defend the Theatre and pitch into the SENTINEL, that capital might come of. Go in TOMMY. If the Theatre can stand it, we can. It strikes us that the Theatre and the Free Democrat both are playing one piece—namely, "His last legs."

OPENING OF THE HIGH SCHOOLS.—The action of the Common Council in relation to the High Schools meets with public approbation. The preliminary steps for opening will be taken to day. We have no doubt of the willingness and ability of the citizens to support this very important branch of our educational system.

THE RE-OPENING OF THE SEVENTH WARD HIGH SCHOOL.—The students of the Seventh Ward High School, and all others wishing to enter the High School, are requested to meet at the High School room this morning at 9 o'clock, (Wednesday, May 23d,) preliminary to its immediate re-opening.

J. G. McKINDLY.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY FOR JUNE.—BAMFORD & BALDWIN, the enterprising news dealers at the Mississippi Railroad Depot, have presented us with this sterling monthly. It is filled with choice reading as usual.

BRIGHT SUNSHINE.—After a damp and foggy morning, we had golden sunshine all the afternoon. The Spring advances rapidly, and the prospects for a heavy crop are as good as can be wished.

DR. SCHLOSSER continues to attract the attention of all afflicted with Corns and Bunyons. His new advertisement will appear to-morrow.

WIDE-AWAKE CLUBS have been organized in Cincinnati. Where are the Milwaukee boys?

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—El Fureidis, by the author of the "Lamplighter" and "Mabel Vaughan." The Semi-Detached House, by Lady Theresa Lewis. Marble Faun, by Hawthorn. Mill on the Floss, by the author of "Adam Bede." The Dime Base Ball Player. The Dime Swimmer. Godey's Magazine for June, 1860. Ballou's Magazine for June, 1860. City Auction Room and Land Office.
I AM NOW REMOVED TO THE STORE No. 163 East Water street. It is directly opposite to Mitchell's Bank. I think I have now one of the best stands for auction business in our city. All who have any business in my line will please give me a call. CALEB WALL.
The firm of OGDEN & WALL is dissolved. I will at present occupy the same office for real estate purposes, and attend to all business, such as obtaining loans, selling mortgages, and renting houses. In the course of two weeks I intend to make my annual report of the improvements which are now going on in the various Wards of our city. The impression with some is that no improvements are going on, which is a mistake; Milwaukee city is yet alive and going ahead, and will continue to do so. Never was there such an opportunity for capitalists to invest money, as now offers. One thing I would request: all who have made contracts for buildings will please inform me, so that I can report the same. CALEB WALL, City Land Agent.

My SPECTACLES are celebrated for the superior and high optic nature of the glasses, as well as NEATNESS and ELEGANCE of finish, for which they received at the World's Fairs, both Paris and London, the first premiums (viz: Gold Medals), being the best specimens on exhibition. THE SENTINEL.

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY

RUFUS KING, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 23, 1860.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT.

ABRAM LINCOLN,

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

HANNIBAL HAMLIN,

OF MAINE.

The Two Conventions.

No one who has read the proceedings of the Democratic and the Republican National Conventions, the one held at Charleston and the other at Chicago, but must have been struck by the remarkable contrast which they present. While noise and confusion, discord and disorder reigned triumphant at Charleston, all was harmony, union and enthusiasm at Chicago. The Charleston Convention sat ten days, split into two fragments and adjourned without action. The Republican Convention were in session three days; adopted a strong platform without a dissenting vote and nominated their candidates by acclamation. At Charleston, the office-holders and politicians were present in great force, but the people were few and far between. At Chicago, the assemblage, in all its features, was a popular one, emphatically a gathering of the masses; exceeding in numbers, in appearance, in spirit and in enthusiasm, any similar convocation ever held in the United States.

The scene, inside and outside the "Wigwam," when the nomination of Mr. Lincoln was finally announced, beggars description. No pen or pencil can do it justice. It must have been seen to be appreciated.—There was nothing factitious about it; everything was real, earnest and most inspiriting. Those who looked upon the sight can never forget it. The most sanguine Republican could not have wished for a more promising opening of the Presidential Campaign. The auguries were all auspicious. The confidence of coming triumph animated all hearts. It is in such a spirit that the Republican Party takes the field for the eventful contest of November, and in this spirit they will prosecute the campaign until Victory crowns their efforts.

The Nomination.

> The Republicans have not yet become reconciled to the defeat of Seward. Lincoln is out of the question. They never awake to him. The treatment which their great leader suffered at the hands of a Convention, composed of those who should have delighted to honor him, is the all-engrossing topic discussed by Republicans now.—News of yesterday.

The News slightly mistakes the feelings and purposes of our Wisconsin Republicans. They do indeed deeply regret that WILLIAM H. SEWARD is not to be our chosen standard bearer in the approaching contest. But they are united to a man in the determination to follow the flag and keep step to the music of the Republican party; and to give LINCOLN and HAMLIN their undivided and zealous support. Time will show that every Republican State that voted for SEWARD at Chicago will heartily sustain LINCOLN at the polls. That is the lesson which SEWARD Republicans everywhere have learned from their illustrious leader.

Hannibal Hamlin, of Maine.

A better man could not have been selected than Senator HAMLIN to run with Mr. LINCOLN; for whilst Mr. LINCOLN is an old line Whig of the HENRY CLAY school, Mr. HAMLIN is an old line Democrat of the JACKSON school. When Mr. LINCOLN was in the House of Representatives, Mr. HAMLIN was in the Senate. They were then considered political antipodes, although agreeing upon the slavery question. Mr. HAMLIN was elected to the Maine Legislature as soon as he was old enough to hold a seat therein. He soon distinguished himself as the champion of the Jacksonian policy. He was elected to Congress in 1848, where he served two terms, and distinguished himself as an out and out SILAS WRIGHT Democrat. We always met him in private consultation with such men as KING, WILMOT, &c., to devise means for the passage of the Wilmot Proviso; for in those days it was not anti-Democratic to be a Free Soiler, nor anti-Democratic to oppose the extension of slavery.

Mr. HAMLIN took his seat in the Senate in the Thirtieth Congress, where he continued until 1856, when he was elected Governor of Maine by the largest majority ever given to any person who had opposition, viz: 17,881. Before his term as Governor expired he was re-elected to the Senate, of which body he is now a conspicuous member.

Mr. LINCOLN could not have a better man upon the ticket with him, and should Mr. Mr. LINCOLN die, the robe could not fall upon a better man.

Mr. HAMLIN, in personal appearance, looks much like Mr. LINCOLN, although not so tall. But he is a little darker-skinned. Although not so philosophical a speaker as Mr. LINCOLN, he is a far more effective one, before a mixed audience. Whilst Mr. LINCOLN is very charitable in his views of his fellow-men, and is often liable to be imposed upon, from his disposition to consider everybody as honest as himself, Mr. HAMLIN is a very shrewd and sagacious man, and an uncommon good judge of human nature. Whilst we are willing to put LINCOLN against DOUGLAS, we also take pride in saying that we are willing to pit Mr. HAMLIN against any man the Democracy may bring out to run against him.—Chicago Democrat.

Lincoln in Michigan.

There is no doubt, says the Detroit Daily Advertiser of Monday, that ABRAM LINCOLN was the second choice of the Republicans of Michigan. He is now their first choice, made so by the action of a fairly-constituted Convention, as well as by their predisposed good feeling toward him, and he will receive their support accordingly. The State that will give a larger majority than Michigan for the gallant statesman of the North west, in proportion to the vote cast, will have to work industriously for a long while. When the Lincoln States are tallied off in November, count Michigan in for one of her best efforts.

"STRAWS, &C."—The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, the home organ of MILLARD FILLMORE, and always heretofore hostile to the Republican organization, has raised the names of LINCOLN and HAMLIN at its editorial head. It does not seem probable that the BELL and EVERETT ticket will receive a very hearty support in New York. Even the Express declines, as yet, to run up the "Conservative Union" nominations.

DR. CHEEVER'S CHURCH.—The troubles in church have been happily set at rest, at least for the present. They have been laid over by a very decisive vote in Dr. CHEEVER'S favor for the next six months. A very exciting and excited debate, which lasted Thursday night from 7 1-2 until 12 o'clock, disclosed the fact that the two parties into which the members of his church are divided despair of agreement, and accordingly, as it would appear, an adjournment was accepted as a compromise.

THE SLAVE TRADE BRISK.—The Key West Key of the Gulf states that when the bark Wildfire left the African coast, there were fourteen American vessels waiting for cargoes of negroes. The bark Williams left eight days before her, with seven hundred and fifty on board. Two Spanish armed steamers were also waiting at the Congo river, for cargoes of one thousand five hundred negroes each, bound for Cuba.

NOW THAT PRIZE FIGHTING has grown so popular, it is not at all strange that the account of the "mill" on the Floss should be read with so much interest.

Taking the Census.

On the first day of next month the U. S. Marshals and their appointed deputies in the different States commence the laborious and important work of taking the enumeration of all the inhabitants of the Republic.—Every citizen, it is to be presumed, is anxious to see that work promptly, accurately and intelligently done, and every citizen can render essential aid towards its successful accomplishment. The following is a list of the questions to be answered by each head of a family, manufacturer or farmer, and it is suggested that replies to them all be prepared and kept in readiness for the Census-takers when they make their rounds. This will save both time and trouble, and ensure greater accuracy. The Press of the State should give extensive circulation to the list:

SOCIAL STATISTICS.

1. Age, profession, occupation, or trade of each male person over fifteen years of age.
2. Value of real estate, without regard to any lien or incumbrance.
3. Value of personal estate—will consist of bonds, mortgages, notes, live stock, jewels, furniture, &c.
4. Place of birth, naming the State, Territory, or country.
5. Number attending school within the year.

MANUFACTURERS.

1. Name of business, manufactory, or products.
2. Capital invested in real or personal estate in the business; raw material used, including fuel, quantities, kinds, value of, kind of motive power, machinery, &c.
3. Average number of hands employed, male and female.
4. Average monthly cost of male labor.
5. Average monthly cost of female labor.

ANNUAL PRODUCTS.

Quantities, kind, value.

FARMERS.

We would also call the attention of farmers to the following questions:

1. Number of improved acres.
2. Number of unimproved acres.
3. Cash value of farm.
4. Value of farming implements and machinery.
5. Horses.
6. Milch cows.
7. Working oxen.
8. Sheep.
9. Swine.
10. Value of live stock.
11. Number of bushels of all kinds of grain.
12. Number of pounds of butter.
13. Number of pounds of cheese.
14. Number of pounds of maple sugar.
15. Value of home manufactures.
16. Value of animals slaughtered.

Every Farmer, Manufacturer, or Head of Family, can, for himself, easily prepare a full answer to these queries. If this shall be done the census of 1860 will be a valuable and reliable compendium of the population, products, resources, wealth and growth of the American Republic.

"Old Abe."

Mr. LINCOLN'S name is not Abraham, but ABRAM. After the election it will do to call him Abraham. The old patriarch of Holy Writ was named Abram until a certain period in his life, when his name was changed to Abraham. We read of this in the 17th chap. of Genesis, as follows:

> "And God talked with him, saying, As for me, behold my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations.—Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be called Abraham, for a father of many nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of thee; and kings shall come out of thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant; to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God."

WATER AND SEWERAGE IN PARIS.—The present water works in Paris have been erected at a cost of three millions of dollars, and are capable of furnishing thirty millions of gallons daily. It is now proposed to construct an aqueduct from the Somme-Soude at a point between Epernay and Chalons-sur-Marne, a distance of nearly 134 miles. This, with the necessary reservoirs, will cost nearly nine millions of dollars; it will furnish about twenty millions of gallons per day, and the reservoirs will contain two-and-a half days' supply. Large portions of the city are now too high to be reached by the present supplies of water. The new aqueduct will have sufficient head of water to reach the highest flats of the highest portions of the city easily. Additional sewerage is also to be provided, at an expense of eight millions of dollers. Two immense lineal sewers are to be built along the Seine; into these the sewers from the city will empty, and the drainage will thu be carried off into the country, which will preserve the purity of the river.

TOBACCO.—The N. Y. Herald has been publishing for the last few days an advertisement of the Spanish government for a supply of Kentucky and Virginia tobacco for the next three years, and amounting to some five or seven millions of dollars. Both France or Spain, in which countries the government retains a monopoly of the tobacco trade, appear to be dependent upon this country for their supply of that fragrant article, the use of which is now required in almost every country in the world, within and without the bounds of civilization. But it is a curious fact that Spain should look to America for her supply of tobacco, while Americans are every day smoking Cuba segars, or at least consuming in large quantities what they suppose to be Havana tobacco.

LOSS OF COTTON SHIPS BY FIRE.—During the last sixteen months sixteen ships and barges laden with cotton have been destroyed by fire. Two of them were struck by lightning. The total value of these vessels and cargoes was $2,247,000. Eight of these vessels, or one half of them, were burnt in port, caused by the stevedores smoking their pipes and dropping fire into the cotton. A portion of those burnt at sea are supposed to have been ignition caused by the concentration of the sun's rays through the deck-lights.

CRIME IN NEW YORK.—The report of the Inspector of the New York police for the last quarter shows that, of 14,170 arrests made, 11,857 were for offences against the person, and 2,313 for offences against property. Of the offenders against property there were 1,930 males and 383 females; of offenders against person there were 7,949 males, and 3,908 females. For intoxication there were 4,525 arrests; for intoxication and disorderly conduct, 1,938; for fighting in the streets, 1,652; for murder 18; for burglary 119.

TOUCHING SCENE.—A boy about six years of age, gathering chips on Friday afternoon, near the Baltimore Railroad depot, Philadelphia, was struck by a locomotive, and had one of his arms literally torn off. The mother of the boy, who is very poor, was almost distracted at the accident. The little fellow bore his sufferings bravely, and his only concern seemed to be for his mother. He frequently said, "What will my mother do?—She will have nobody to bring her chips!"

OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.—The two sections of the Southern Overland Telegraph, already completed, cover five hundred miles southwest from St. Louis on the Atlantic side, and four hundred and eighty miles east of San Francisco on the Pacific. It is in expectation, when the wires are completed to Los Angelos on the one side, and to Fort Smith on the other, that a horse express will connect these points by a run of five days.

DEATH OF TWO MORE OF THE VICTIMS OF THE LATE FIRE.—Last Saturday Edward Meloy, the man who was badly burnt at the late fire, in bravely rescuing McArthy's little girl, breathed his last, and yesterday McArthy died. The little girl is expected to recover. Four lives have paid the penalty of being careless with fire, and if any more warning was needed to be watchful of this dangerous element, it has been impressively afforded.—Madison Patriot of Monday.

The Japanese Embassy—Their Reception by the President.

Dispatch to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 17.

The Japanese Embassy, attended by their officers and the Naval Commission, left Willard's Hotel at about 11 1-2 o'clock this morning, on their way to the President's house. They rode in open carriages. Twenty five policemen were in front, and the same number in the rear, while the marines and ordinance men marched on each side of the vehicles to the music of the Marine Band.

The chief Prince was arrayed in a rich brocade purple silk sack, with ample overhanging sleeves, and flowing trowsers of the same color. The other two dignitaries were in green of similar texture and fashion. They wore caps like inverted ladies' capes, fastened on the crown of the head by strings passing under the chin. They carried pikes, halberds, and emblems of their rank. The inferior officers wore small hats, consisting of a round band, with triangular crowns—also tied to the head by strings under the chin.

The prominent points were occupied by eager spectators, and the streets were crowded, multitudes following to the President's house.

Meanwhile, in the East room had assembled a brilliant company, among whom were the New York Municipal Committee, who came hither to invite the Japanese to visit that city.

Contrary to the programme and expectation, there was a large attendance of ladies, who accompanied the members of Congress and others holding prominent public positions.

The naval officers formed in line in the East Room. Prominent among them was Capt. Tatnall. The army officers formed another line, Lieutenant General Scott, with his staff, being prominent.

Between these lines was an open space about twenty-five feet wide, to be the scene of the grand presentation.

The interest was intense, and the usual stir characterized the preliminary proceedings.

The folding-doors were opened at noon, when the President of the United States entered, accompanied by the Cabinet officers. They took position on the east side, facing to the west.

Secretary Cass retired to the ante-room and returned with the Japanese Commissioners and their attendants, who made several profound bows as they approached the President and the Cabinet.

Then one of the Japanese opened a series of paper boxes, one within another, and produced several letters, which were handed to the President and by him to Gen. Cass.

The principal Japanese then addressed the President, as follows:

"His Majesty, the Tycoon, has commanded us that we respectfully express to his Majesty, the President of the United States, in his name, as follows:

"Desiring to establish on a firm and lasting foundation the relations of peace and commerce so happily existing between the two countries:

"That lately the Plenipotentiaries of both countries have negotiated and concluded a treaty;

"Now he has ordered us to exchange the ratification of the treaty in your principal city of Washington;

"Henceforth he hopes that the friendly relations shall be held more and more lasting, and will be very happy to have your friendly feeling;

"That you have brought us to the United States, and will send us back to Japan in your man-of-war."

Having delivered their message, they retired, bowing to the President and Cabinet repeatedly in leaving their presence. They soon, however, returned, bowing profoundly as before, when the President addressed them as follows, Mr. Portman interpreting to the Japanese interpreter, and the latter communicating with the principal Envoy:

"I give you a cordial welcome as representatives of His Imperial Majesty, the Tycoon of Japan, to the American government. We are all much gratified that the first Embassy which your great Empire has ever accredited to any foreign power has been sent to the United States. I trust that this will be the harbinger of perpetual peace and friendship between the two countries. The treaty of commerce, whose ratification you are about to exchange with the Secretary of State, cannot fail to be productive of benefits and blessings to the people both of Japan and the United States. I can say for myself, and promise for my successors, that it shall be carried into execution in a faithful and friendly spirit, so as to secure to both countries all the advantages they may justly expect from the happy auspices under which it has been negotiated and ratified. I rejoice that you are pleased with the kind treatment which you have received on board our vessels-of-war, whilst on your passage to this country. You shall be sent back in the same manner to your native land, under the protection of the American flag. Meanwhile, during your residence amongst us, which I hope may be prolonged so as to enable you to visit the different portions of our country, we shall be happy to extend to you all the hospitality and kindness eminently due to the great and friendly sovereign whom you so worthily represent."

The President handed them a copy of his address, and then shook hands with them.

The subordinate Japanese officers were also brought in and introduced.

Capt. Dupont was conspicuous in this part of the ceremony.

The Cabinet officers were presented in the following order: Cobb, Floyd, Toucey, Thompson, Holt, Black; and their relative official positions briefly explained.

Lieut. Gen. Scott was next introduced, and they warmly greeted him, being evidently delighted with his fine, commanding appearance, and in view of his public position.

Gen. Cass asked for Vice-President Breckinridge, to introduce him, but he was absent.

Speaker Pennington, as Speaker of the House, was then introduced to the distinguished visitors.

The Japanese again repeated their profound bows, when the impressive scene closed.

Gen. Cass privately said, referring to their ample trousers, "that they would look better with hoops."

The crowd slowly dispersed.

The Japanese returned to their hotel in the same order in which they went to the President's house, evidently delighted with the imposing proceedings.

It should be in the above stated that the Japanese did not present a uniform appearance in their costume, which differed according to their respective ranks and positions.

Among other army officers present were Lieut. Gen. Scott; Gens. Totten, Jessup, Churchill and Johnson; Cols. Roberts, Thomas, Cook, Craige, Childs and Taylor; Maj. Ramsey; and of the navy, Capts. Smith, Shubrick, Buchanan, Tatnall, and Col. Harris of the Marine Corps. They were in full dress and made a splendid appearance. A French naval officer was also in the distinguished throng. In addition to other gentlemen holding high public positions were Minister Preston and Assistant Secretary of State Appleton.

The letter accrediting the Japanese Comsioners to the government of the United States was unrolled from a large and magnificent scarlet satin envelope. When the Embassy first retired from the East Room it was for the purpose of bringing with them the Imperial or principal Ambassador, who, according to their etiquette, could not be present at the delivery of the letter accrediting them. The demeanor of the Japanese was exceedingly grave and solemn. Their appearance contrasted strangely, but impressively, with that of the deeply interested spectators.

During the entire ceremony, whenever the eyes of a Japanese official were raised from the ground, they were directed to the President and to his countenance only. So rigidly was this practice observed, that it seemed that no one of the Japanese could have seen the countenances of those surrounding them, excepting those of the few distinguished gentlemen to whom they were introduced.

Some of the Japanese during the afternoon took an airing in carriages.

THE FOREST CASE—FINAL DECREE—FORREST VS. FORREST.—This case which has occupied public attention for the last ten years, is most near a termination. The counsel attended before the judge this morning for the purpose of settling the final order. The order, as proposed by Mr. O'Conner, recites the decree of divorce and the legal steps already taken. It allows Mrs. Forrest alimony of $4,000 a year, dating from the 19th of November, 1850, and then provides for arrearages due upon such allowance, which, with interest, amounts to $47,716.47. This sum is to be paid into the United States Life and Trust Company, within thirty days after the settlement of the order. The arrearages and future allowance which is to be paid quarterly, to be secured by depositing with the same company the mortgage held by Mr. Forrest upon the Fonthill estate, or other adequate security. Mr. Van Buren proposed amending the order by deducting the interest upon the arrearages, which would lessen the sum about ten thousand dollars, and also giving Mr. Forrest ninety instead of thirty days to deposit the amount and mortgage in the Trust Company. The judge took the papers and reserved his decision. For plaintiff, Charles O'Conner and Mr. Chase; for defendant, John Van Buren and James T. Brady.—N. Y. Post, Wednesday.

SPRING.

How cheering is the voice of Spring;
What blessings doth her visits bring;
Her gentle hands, sweet lovely maid,
Take down the barriers Winter made,
And where the crystal tresses hung
The rain drops tune their merry song.

Her voice has charms that move the earth
And give to vegetation birth;
She wakes the plants and lovely flowers,
And waters them with gentle showers;
Earth but a dreary waste would be,
Were it not loved, sweet Spring for thee.

It is not very long ago
The trees were whitened with the snow;
Now lovely Spring, with sky serene,
Has dress'd them in a plume of green;
How prettily the new-born leaves
Frolic in her gentle breeze.

Six thousand years their course have run
Since earth was rounded into form,
And yet her flowers are fragrant now
As when they deck'd fair Eden's brow;
The fields are green and lovely, too,
Spangled with the drops of dew.

We may o'er Nature's landscape scan,
And pencil out each leaf and stem,
But, ah! to make one living bud,
Requires the wisdom of a God;
There's not a blade of grass we see,
But bears the marks of Deity.
S. R.

A MYSTERIOUS LODGER.

In September, 1852, I occupied a room in a two-story frame building in Stockton street. In the house were perhaps half a dozen lodgers—possibly more. As I seldom visited my room during the day, and invariably retired at twelve o'clock, I rarely met any of my neighbors—or, if I did, it was without my knowing them. With two of my fellow lodgers I became partially acquainted. One was a middle aged man, occupying a room adjoining mine, and divided from it by a thin partition. Against that thin boundary stood our beds—the middle-aged gentleman's and mine—not to exceed three inches apart. The middle-aged gentleman was wedded to the habit of snoring. And his was a peculiar snore; not a periodical murmur, accompanying every fourth or fifth inspiration, but a terrific and uninterrupted combination of snorts, groans and snuffles, with the addition of teeth grinding, and occasional plunges of the extremities against the creaking foot board. For a week I bore up against the clatter. At length, one night, I knocked at his door. I was desperate. He rose, struck a light, and for the first time we met face to face. I had prepared myself to deluge him with sarcasm—to abuse him with billingsgate—to sink him with abuse. His face was so round and jovial, and his head so entirely destitute of hair, that I could not summon courage to utter a harsh word. For a moment we peered silently into each other's faces.

"Can I do anything for you?" I inquired.

Smith, for that was his name, must have read my thoughts—must have known that he snored—must have been aware of the object of my visit—for he immediately replied:

"Yes, my friend, join me in a glass of brandy and water—I have a few drops of something genuine. Permit me to insist," he continued, observing my hesitation, "you will sleep all the better for it," and he gave me a look, welling over with commiseration.

I meekly followed him to the side board, and we pledged each other in a glass of ancient vintage. He then pressed me to smoke a cigar. I could scarcely do less. Sitting on the side of the bed, with his rotund visage peeping through a gauze of smoke, and his fat legs swinging good naturedly. Smith was a picture. Together we would have afforded an amusing sketch for Punch. He talked incessantly, and, before I left him, we touched glasses several times, and I firmly resolved that he might snore night and day, for a year to come, and I would not disturb him. I wrung his hand in an ecstacy of friendship, and bade him an affectionate good night. I tumbled in my bed but tried in vain to sleep. Smith's brandy was playing strange tricks with my fancy, and I felt as though something was whispering, as to "Macbeth," "Sleep no more!" I lit a candle, and found it was two o'clock.—Irritated at my wakefulness, I drew on my clothes and was soon in the street. The moon rode high in the heavens, and the night was beautiful as a poet's dream.—Strolling along the street as far as Clay, I suddenly turned the corner, and encountered a crowd of half drunken rowdies, standing in front of a house they had either just left, or were about two enter. In the act of retracing my steps, I heard some one exclaim, in a boyish tone.

"Not to-night, gentlemen; some other time, but not to-night; please excuse me."

The speaker in passing along the street, had been stopped by the rowdies and invited to drink.

"Bah," exclaimed a number of voices, "You must come up to the scratch—either drink or fight."

"But, gentlemen, I cannot," insisted the stranger, struggling to free himself from the grasp of his persecutors. "I can neither drink nor fight to-night; I am not well."

"Gammon," growled the party, attempting to force him into the house.

I felt that, as a conservator of the peace champion of society, it was my duty to interfere. Smith's brandy told me so, and furnished the nerve, in addition, to carry out the resolution. Stalking quietly in upon the crowd, I laid my hand upon the boy's shoulder and requesting him to follow. He turned to comply, when "Give him one!" yelled one of the rowdies, and the next moment I received a blow on the back of the neck, and found myself leaning against the side of a house. I was not stunned, but exasperated beyond measure. The liquor of my bald headed fellow-lodger steeled my nerves to action, and I threw myself into a position of defense. Not doubting my perfect ability to scatter that crowd over an acre of ground, I invited the unequal contest. The appearance of a policeman spared the impending slaughter, for the party suddenly left the field. My companion informed the officer of what had occurred, and he started in pursuit of the retreating rowdies, enjoining us to and the way to our lodgings. Taking the arm of the lad, we proceeded toward my room. He was a pale faced, interesting looking young man, of perhaps eighteen or nineteen years, remarkably well bred and intelligent. He was dressed in good taste, without affecting any of the airs of mature years, and I was quite taken up with him. He told me his name was Richard Jansen; that he was alone in California, but not without means; that he lived on Stockton street, and visiting a friend that evening, had been detained until that unusual hour. In a few moments we arrived at my lodgings, and observing that he evinced little inclination to part with me, I invited him to partake of a portion of my bed for that night.—He smilingly declined, stating that he was quite near his own; and I then learned, for the first time, that he occupied a room in the same house and on the same floor with myself. Thus I became acquainted with two of my fellow-lodgers.

Jansen and myself often met after that, but it was always in the street or on the stairway. He never invited me to his room, or accepted an invitation to mine. He visited me but once at my office, and then remained less than five minutes. How he spent his time I did not inquire. He was a mystery.—I spoke of him to Smith one day. Strange to say, that gentleman had never heard of him, but from the description of him, ventured the opinion that he was either a gambler or a genteel pickpocket. I was reluctantly forced to the conclusion that Smith was right, and after that I treated the young man with unusual coldness. He observed the change, and his look wore a reproach so sorrowful that I half repentent having harbored the suspicion of my venerable looking friend, who was fearfully averse to all my mysteries.

Occasion called me to my room one evening, at an earlier hour than usual. I heard a soft rap at my door, and opening it, found Jansen in the entry. "Come in, Jansen," I exclaimed, throwing open the door.

"Would you not prefer taking a walk," he inquired. "The night is beautiful."

"I believe not to-night," I replied, "some other time." I was a little piqued that he should persist remaining outside the door.

"I should be much pleased to have you," he rejoined. "I have a few words to say to you in justice to myself, and—"

"Enough," I interrupted, "I will go." I felt assured he desired to tell me something of himself, and I was all anxiety to hear it. It was unpleasant to think him a sharper or pickpocket, and I hoped he might be able to prove to me that he was neither.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR
FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.

NURSING SORE MOUTH

is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers: and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, ensuing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,
DONALD KENNEDY.

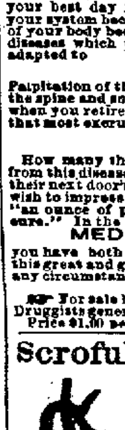
Scrofula, or King's Evil,



IS A CONSTITUTIONAL disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this blood becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease upon any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there any one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which engenders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla

The most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small-pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D. Lynnville, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Rust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Maris, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. * * * Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO IN OHIO.

Terrible Ravages all over the Southern part of the State—Loss in Cincinnati [illegible]!

CINCINNATI, May 22—3 P. M.

The most destructive tornado ever known visited this city yesterday afternoon, between three and four o'clock. The storm came from N. E., and appeared in clouds densely black, extending two miles in breadth, rushing forward with fearful rapidity, accompanied by [illegible] lightning, and torrents of rain. The damage done in this city, by blowing down and unroofing houses, is immense—loss probably $300,000.

A large number of persons were injured, but so far as learned only six were killed.—The roof of the new Commercial office building was blown off, portions of it being carried a distance of a square. A part of the wall fell through Johnson's saloon, injuring several persons on the ground floor.

The steeple of St. Joseph's (Catholic) church was blown off and fell through the roof. Most of the public buildings, school houses and churches, besides a large number of dwellings, were unroofed or otherwise damaged. The telegraph lines in every direction are prostrated and but little is known [illegible] in the country, but as far as ascertained the damage has been as severe as in this city.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad is covered with forests of fallen timber between [illegible] and Carthage village, and the country along the Little Miami railroad, between [illegible] and Loveland, suffered terribly. The railroad depot at Loveland, and other buildings were demolished.

The storm visited Cummingsville with great fury. The Catholic orphan asylum was completely unroofed. The road between [illegible] and Brighton House is covered with trees torn up by the roots. Nurseries and gardens along the road suffered severely.

The storm along the river raged with fearful [illegible]. The steamers at the levee, however, were properly moored, and weathered [illegible].

The steamer Virginia Home, when two miles above the city, capsized. The cabin parted from the hull and floated down the river in fragments. Only three passengers on board, who were saved. Two of the crew [illegible]. Boat valued at $6,000.

At Spring Grove Cemetery the destruction to monuments, trees and shrubbery, was severe.

Along the Zanesville river, from Morrowtown to Circleville, trees were blown down by thousands and several houses destroyed.

At Mt. Auburn there was great destruction to trees and shrubbery. All along Clifton avenue trees were uprooted.

The train on the Covington and Lexington road was thrown from the track. Locomotive and baggage car completely demolished. Passengers escaped uninjured.

A heavy rain set in early in the evening and continued until after midnight, drenching the [illegible] made roofless by the storm, which is conceded to have been been the most disastrous known to the present generation. It is impossible to estimate all the damage done, but scarcely a house in the city escaped uninjured.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 21.

Reliable information has been received here that H. S. Sanford, the secret agent of the Panama R. R., has failed in the objects sought at Bogota. These were the annulment of the Chiriqui Improvement Co.'s grant, and the extension of the Panama R. R. Co.'s grant to 99 years. To accomplish his ends Mr. Sanford offered on the part of the Panama Co. the payment in cash of half a million dollars and the right of the Granadian Government to levy a tax of two dollars on each passenger over the Isthmus. That government asked $40,000,000 to extend the time to 99 years and to relinquish the right of New Granada to purchase the Panama R. R. for [illegible] in 15 years from this time.

Lieut. Rodman's great gun, the "Floyd," is now on her way to Fort Monroe, and was examined with marked satisfaction to-day by Prince de Joinville and others interested in such heavy ordnance.

The prospect in the Senate of the passage of the House tariff bill is more favorable than heretofore supposed. Twenty-eight Senators are already ascertained to be in its favor and will vote for it with slight modifications.

It is known here that many anti-Douglas delegates to the Charleston Convention have prepared an address which they will shortly issue, proposing as a basis of re-union at Baltimore the resolution of Mr. Howard, of [illegible], which was previously endorsed by [illegible]. Other Democrats regard the matter with favor.

The Japanese are still the objects of attention. They have been spending the day in visiting the public buildings. On Friday, the President will entertain the Ambassadors at a dinner, to which a number of distinguished guests are already invited.

Our Government will present to the Japanese, among other things, the finest specimens of firearms and four sets of Perry's Japanese Expedition, the volumes to be bound in the richest style.

ROCHESTER, May 22—3 P. M.

The attendance this A. M. was larger than usual—328 delegates were present. A report was presented and adopted by the Assembly, recommending the second week in January next, as a season of prayer for the conversion of the whole world. Also a report discountenancing the practice of social dancing, but leaving the matter of discipline to the several sessions. The report on foreign missions was presented by Dr. Edgar, and interesting remarks made by the Hon. Walter Lowry and Rev. S. Mattoon of Siam.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 22—3 P. M.

SENATE.—The Senate met at 11 o'clock.—Mr. Bigler presented a memorial in favor of changing the tariff.

Mr. Gwin introduced a bill to grant alternate sections of land to California for R. R. purposes.

On motion of Mr. Pearce, the Senate insisted on its amendments to the consular and diplomatic bill, and the committee of conference were ordered to confer with similar committee on the part of the House.

Mr. Benjamin spoke at length in opposition to Douglas doctrine. He said the Senator in his speech, occupying two days, had presented the extraordinary spectacle of advocating his own claims to the Presidency and denouncing those who dare express their views on the subject before the Senate, assuming that he was the embodiment of the Democratic party, and all who opposed him were rebels.

Benjamin defended the Democratic Senators from the charge of having attempted to dictate to the Charleston Convention, what sort of a platform they should make.

Nobody here wanted to make a slave code, nor to force slavery on unwilling people. Assaults on the Democratic Senators were wanton and unprovoked. The Senator had defended his constituency, but that was not the issue between them. It was that the Senator had made a bargain, and violated it. It was his consistency that was his great crime, adhering to his views which he had agreed to abandon when the Court decided the question, and which had been decided against him.

HOUSE.—Mr. Dawes, from the committee on elections, reported a resolution declaring, first, that J. R. Barrett is not, and secondly that Francis P. Blair is, entitled to a seat from the first Congressional district of Missouri. The majority and minority reports were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Dawes said it was the desire of the Committee to call up the subject at the earliest practicable period.

On his motion a resolution was adopted giving leave to Mr. Blair to occupy a seat on the floor, and speak on the merits of the question.

The House resumed the consideration of the Atlantic and Pacific telegraph bill.

Mr. Colfax explained the amendment which the Committee on P. O. proposed.

The Government is to pay forty thousand dollars per year for messages, the public to be charged $3 for ten words. If the corporations do not accept these terms within thirty days, then said proposals are to be invited and the contracts to be given to the lowest responsible bidders; the line to be built within two years, and St. Joseph to be the point of departure.

Mr. Colfax earnestly urged the passage of the bill, showing the great advantage which will result to the Government.

Mr. Burnett opposed the bill, as creating an oppressive monopoly.

Other gentlemen expressed views, and the subject was passed over.

The House by twelve majority disagreed to the Senate amendment of the military academy bill, providing for calling the mounted regiment of Texas volunteers into the field.

The Speaker laid before the House a special message from the President, communicating the fact of the capture, by the Wyandotte, of another cargo of Africans—making, with those of the Wildfire, over one thousand at Key West, under the charge of the Federal Marshal.

He suggests immediate action for their accommodation and health, and says that more may daily be expected to be brought in.

The message was referred to the committee on judiciary.

The House went into committee on the whole on the state of the Union, on the Legislative Executive, and Judicial Appropriation bill.

Further Particulars of the Gales in Southern Ohio.

CINCINNATI, May 22—9 P. M.

The storm along the river, above and below, was very severe. At Madison, Ind., 6 or 8 buildings were unroofed, but no lives were lost. There are 4 pairs coal boats sunk and 6 men are missing. The Str. Eunice is wrecked near Ghent, Ky.; cabin and chimneys blown overboard, together with quantity of freight. The stmr. Argyle lost her chimneys.

Wharf boats at Patriot, Ghent, Vevay, &c., were torn from their moorings and carried up stream and wrecked. At New Richmond, Ohio, several buildings were unroofed, and doing a vast amount of damage to boats and rafts.

Six pair coal boats were in sight when the storm came on. Nothing has been seen of them since; all on board probably perished. The railroads sustained but little damage, and are all in running order.

From Washington.

From our own Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 18.

The debate of the last three days, between Mr. Douglas and Mr. Davis, has not contributed much to heal the distractions in the Democratic ranks. They are both representative men of the two antagonistic interests, and may be supposed to reflect the feelings and prejudices of their respective divisions. Without some concession the restoration of harmony in the party is impossible, and neither side seems inclined to make that advance. Before the adjournment of the Charleston Convention, Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky agreed upon a resolution in regard to the slavery question—North Carolina concurring—which was read for information, and presented as the ultimatum of those States. Unless adopted by the Convention in substance they threatened to secede. This resolution is still pending, and must be considered at the adjourned Convention in Baltimore. Mr. Douglas took occasion to protest against it in the most positive terms, thus making an issue upon the only compromise which the conservative portion of the South is willing to accept.

It remains to be seen whether Mr. Douglas will be strong enough in the convention to defeat that proposition. It was stated in Charleston, and upon sufficient authority, that New York was prepared to vote for it. So was a large majority of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey delegations, and a part of New England. This support, combined with that of the southern States which remained in the convention, would secure the resolution a majority, even supposing the seceders did not return. In that event a question might arise as to the course of Mr. Douglas' friends, especially in view of his declarations in the present debate. They signified very distinctly in Charleston, that if beaten upon the platform, they would withdraw and take the consequences. That alternative may yet be resorted to, and the spectacle presented of two bolts in one convention. Recent developments are against a perfect fusion at Baltimore, and in the face of Mr. Douglas' speech notwithstanding all his professions of devotion to the south, it is difficult to see how the seceding delegates can return, even with the urgent appeal which has been addressed to them by southern Senators and Representatives. In fact, there is a strong belief prevailing that he does not desire their presence, but wants the vacancies filled by more convenient partisans. The times are evidently out of joint, and the tendency of parties is towards disintegration and reconstruction.—Philadelphia North American.

KILLED BY A RATTLESNAKE.—Some three weeks ago, a son of Peyton W. Bailey, residing near Sylvan Grove postoffice, in Dale county, being in the woods with his dog, supposed by the barking of the animal that he had pursued a rabbit to a hole under a clay root. Putting in his hand to feel for the rabbit, he was bitten by a snake that had taken refuge there. The lad, feeling his danger, bound his arm tightly with his suspender above the wound, and ran for home, but fell blinded from the effects of the poison before he reached there. His cries, however, attracted the attention of the family, and he was borne home and whiskey freely administered, until it produced its usual effect. His arm, however, below the bandage, swelled, turned black and burst, and after living about two days he expired. The snake was dug out and dragged from its den, and found to be a very old rattlesnake, full of poison, large quantities being forced from its mouth by the pressure of the rope around its neck, used to draw it out.—Abbeville (S. C.) South.

THE CROPS IN CANADA.—We are very happy to say that the late rains, and the fine weather which has succeeded them have put a different face upon matters in the country. The countenances of the farmers have been shortened considerably, and they are venturing upon purchases which they would have deemed extravagant a fortnight ago. In some of the places where the fall wheat was supposed to be very much injured, it has made such progress as to promise, not only a fair but a full crop.—Toronto Globe.

A PRIZE BANNER.—The purse of a hundred dollars, that we announced a day or two ago was going to be made by our citizens, is intended to purchase a prize banner, to be presented to the county making the best display at the Fair. There will undoubtedly be a spirit of emulation among the several counties of the State, that will be productive of some creditable displays.—Madison Patriot.

With larger receipts there was less activity in wheat to-day as yesterday, and prices fluctuated slightly, but taking the closing sales as a criterion we cannot quote the market lower. The opening prices were: $1,00 for No. 1 in store, and $1,04 for No. 2. Private despatches received on 'Change, announcing the New York market 1c lower, caused a decline of ½c, several car loads of No. 1 selling at $1,05½, and buyers generally refused to pay more than $1,05, and $1,03 for No. 2, at which figure a few car loads were sold. A firmer feeling, however, existed in the afternoon, and a sale of 8,000 bus No. 1 was made at $1,06 in store, and No. 2 was held at $1,04. This improvement was probably owing to the fact that the sales of Milwaukee Club at New York were fully up to yesterday's quotations, notwithstanding the reported decline of 1c.

There was not much done in flour, the transactions since our last, including a sale of 400 bbls last evening, amounting to 570 bbls at $4,62½ for very good superfine, and $4,90@5,20 for ordinary to good country Extra.

The sales of coarse grains were unimportant. Oats, delivered, 32c; shelled Corn 43c; No. 1 Barley 63c; and Rye 77c.

Freights are inactive, owing to a scarcity of vessels. Rates on flour by steam are as follows:

To Buffalo (nominal)	25c Ꝑ bbl.
To New York	60c do
To Oswego	40c do
To Ogdensburgh	45c do
To Boston, (via Ogdensburgh)	80c do

The bark Sir E. W. Head was chartered at 7c for wheat to Kingston. Rates to Buffalo and Oswego nominally 5 and 8c.

THE telegraph reports the New York flour market a shade easier, closing with a downward tendency; wheat 1c lower, sales including 20,000 bus fair to choice Milwaukee Club at $1,22@1,25, delivered.

CHICAGO MARKET, MAY 21ST.—Receipts of the articles named, at Chicago, yesterday, were as follows:

Flour, bbls	1,256
Wheat, bus	17,078
Corn, bus	80,101
Oats, bus	2,588
Barley, bus	235

The Press & Tribune says:

The amount of flour, wheat and corn in store in this city, is estimated by the Secretary of the Board of Trade, as follows:

Flour, bbls	11,542
Wheat, bus	425,000
Corn, bus	1,100,000

The markets to-day were generally dull and lower. Corn declined 1½@2c, under unfavorable news from New York, with sales at 52c for river mixed afloat; 49½c for canal afloat; 48½@50c for No. 1 in store; 47½@48c for No. 2; and 44c for rejected—the market closing dull. Wheat opened quiet, but the market declined about 2c and closed weak, with, however, but limited transactions, at $1,03@1,05 for No. 2 spring; and $1,06@1,06½ for No. 1 spring in store. Flour was in but limited inquiry and the market dull, with light transactions at $5,12½@5,50 for spring extras. Oats more difficult to sell. Rye 1c lower. Barley quiet.

Freights are still inactive and quiet. A schooner and propeller were engaged at 4½c for corn to Buffalo.

ALBANY MARKET, MAY 19TH.—(From the Journal.)—FLOUR AND MEAL—The transactions in flour were only to a moderate extent, the rain having tended to check out-door operations. The market rules steady, particularly for favorite brands of State. Corn meal is steady.

WHEAT—In good supply, with a moderate milling inquiry. Sales 5,000 bus white Canadian at $1,56. Corn in large supply with only a moderate home and eastern demand. Sales 3,000 bus western mixed, in car lots, at 66@70c. Rye steady with sales 200 bus at 86 Ꝑ 56 lbs. In barley nothing has transpired. Oats steady, with a fair shipping inquiry. Sales 1,000 bus State at 42c.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable, both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

Tickets for sale at all the principal ticket offices at the West, and at the Company's office, No. 50 Dearborn St., opposite the Tremont House, Chicago; and at the Union Ticket office, No. 230 East Water St., Milwaukee.
